Mr. C. V. Iyyu (Kunnamkulam): May I know how does it happen that the reply to the question "whether house-searches were conducted in certain cases" is in the jurisdiction of the Ernakulam Town Police Station alone become subjudice? In Mattancheri Town Police Station no houses were searched and at Ernakulam it is stated to be subjudice. Whether house-searches were made or not is the only question.

Khan Sahib Y. Muhammad Roshan Sahib Bahadur (Commissioner of Police): No house-searches were made in Mattancheri. So the answer was "No". At Ernakulam searches were made and the matter is subjudice.

Mr. C. V. Iyyu (Kunnamkulam): Searches were made in the Ernakulam Town and so in view of that answer will the Government be pleased to reconsider their reply for the sub-division (d)? The answer to sub-division (d) is "does not arise in view of answer to (c)". You replied in answer to (c) that houses were searched in the jurisdiction of the Ernakulam Town Police Station. So you have admitted that house searches were made. If that lies will you be pleased to answer sub-division (d)?

Khan Sahib Y. Muhammad Roshan Sahib Bahadur (Commissioner of Police): That aspect of the answer is covered by the answer 'subjudice'.

Mr. M. Krishna Menon (Trichur-North): Will the Government be pleased to state whether search lists were prepared and whether these search lists will not be available to the Public for obtaining copies.

Khan Sahib Y. Muhammad Roshan Sahib Bahadur (Commissioner of Police): The matter has been stated to be subjudice. Any further discussion is out of place.

Mr. C. V. Iyyu (Kunnamkulam): It was stated in the papers that the amount involved was 3 lakhs.

Khan Sahib Y. Muhammad Roshan Sahib Bahadur (Commissioner of Police): Any such story will amount to contempt of court.
